

SCHOOL DRESS CODE

Learners of the Deutsche Internationale Schule Johannesburg as representatives of the school are expected to wear their school clothes with pride and in a respectable manner at all times.

The following articles of clothing are prescribed for the pupils of the Deutsche Internationale Schule Johannesburg:

A. Boys: Summer and Winter

- Navy bermudas or long grey trousers;
- white short- or long-sleeved polo-shirt with embroidered "DSJ": The polo-shirt with without a side slit must be tucked into bermudas/trousers. The polo-shirt with a side slit may be worn over the Bermudas/trousers. The seam of the polo-shirt may not be visible when a pullover or slipover is worn.
- navy, long-sleeved school pullover or navy-blue slipover with embroidered "DSJ";
- grey, white or navy-blue ankle socks;
- black school shoes (no sports shoes);
- navy winter jacket with DSJ emblem
- navy fleece jacket with DSJ emblem
- navy blue drymac with DSJ emblem

From September to April boys in Grade 1-7 may wear black or navy leather sandals that have a strap around the heel (no slip-slops!).

Classes 10 to 12

- In winter and for official functions it is compulsory for learners to wear the long, grey trousers, the navy-blue school blazer with the school badge as well as a white shirt with the school tie.
- In addition to the school blazer the navy winter jacket may be worn.
- In summer the Bermudas with the polo shirt may still be worn.

B. Girls: Summer and Winter

- tartan coulottes or tartan skirt or hipsters;
- navy blue bermudas, long grey trousers or tartan trousers;
- long- or short-sleeved white polo-shirt with "DSJ" embroidery: polo shirt without side slits must be tucked into the coulottes/skirt/trousers. The polo-shirt with a side slit may be worn over the skirt/trousers/coulotte. The seam of the polo-shirt may not be visible when a pullover or slipover is worn.
- navy-blue, long-sleeved cardigan or navy-blue, long-sleeved pullover or navy-blue slipover with embroidered "DSJ";
- white ankle socks or navy tights;
- black school shoes (no sports shoes);
- navy-blue winter jacket with embroidered "DSJ";
- navy fleece jacket with "DSJ" embroidery
- navy blue drimac with DSJ emblem

From September to April girls in Grade 1-7 may wear black or navy leather sandals that have a strap around the heel (no slip-slops!).

Classes 10 to 12

- In winter and for official functions it is compulsory for learners to wear the navy-blue school blazer with the school badge. Navy blue bermudas are not to be worn with the school blazer.
- In addition to the school blazer the navy winter jacket may be worn.

C. Dress for Sports: Girls and Boys

Learners who have sport in the first or last periods may come to school / leave school in the DSJ tracksuit. This also entails that they may wear the DSJ tracksuit for extramural activities and additional support lessons.

Classes 1 to 4

- black PT shorts;
- T-shirt in class colours;
- white socks;
- sports shoes.

Classes 5 to 12

Sportswear (PT shorts and T-shirt) is compulsory.

DSJ sport shirt

Black PT shorts/ DSJ PT shorts

Should the first or last lesson of the day be sport, the learners in these lessons may arrive on or leave the school premises dressed in the official school tracksuit. This is also true for other sports extramurals.

D. Swimming: Boys and Girls - Classes 1 to 12

Wearing a DSJ school bathing costume / bathing trunks is compulsory.

Learners with long hair are expected to wear swimming caps.

E. Hair

No style is prescribed. The school expects the pupils to be well groomed.

F. Jewellery

The wearing of jewellery may not detract from the overall appearance of the school uniform.

G. Additional uniform that is available but not compulsory

- DSJ tracksuit (compulsory when learner represents the school in official events);
- DSJ sports bag;
- navy scarf, gloves and beanie without any form of advertising;
- DSJ school cap;
- DSJ board shorts;

The uniform can be purchased from the DSJ uniform shop at school, which is open on Mondays from 07h30 to 10h30 and 12h30 to 14h30 and Wednesdays from 12h30 to 14h30.

On rainy days any rain jacket may be worn over the school uniform.

In the Primary School (Grades 1-4) parents may decide individually on the type of hat their child may wear. However, it is compulsory that the colour of said hat be navy blue.

Please Note: Uniform items are those items specified as such by the school executive in consultation with the School Uniform Committee.

T. Bachmeier
Principal
Johannesburg, 6 May 2015